VI. STATEMENT OF FACTS

On September 2, 2008 I went to Sick Call. I complained to nurse (F.N.U. Conklin) that my leg had swelled up and that the pain was extreme. After Nurse Conklin examined my leg she told me to go back to my gallery and tell the officer to call the hospital for me in an emergency capacity. I told gallery officer what the nurse said and he asked to look at my leg. He called and then took me down as an emergency. At 9:00 AM, I arrived. I did not see anyone until 1:30 PM, and this was only after becoming slightly hostile due to my pain. The officer in charge was Officer 'DeSilvia' I told him that I was here in an emergency capacity and that someone better come see me. He told me hold on. When the nurse showed up (Nurse Camper) she said, "Give me your I.D." She return several minutes later with my medical file and said, "You not seeing nobody today". At the time I didn't know her name so I said, "Listen nurse, I'm in extreme pain, my leg is completely swollen and I can hardly walk." "Why can't I see the doctor?" She said, "Because you don't have an appointment. And you just been to sick call this morning." I said, "Yeah, I been to sick call this morning and me and the nurse both agreed that I need to see a doctor". "I'm down here as a emergency." She looked at me for a moment and then said, "Well you won't be seeing no doctor today." She then left. Officer DeSilvia looked at me and I asked him could he get me in to see a doctor? He said, "I'm security." "That's not my department." Then he told me I had to leave. I came back the next day barely able to stand and despite the pain, I didn't cry. I was sent down to emergency by the same officer who sent me the day before 'Officer Goss'. Another nurse, nurse 'John' checked my leg and said I must see a doctor right now. I was sent in to see doctor Bakshi and he said, "We have to get you to an outside hospital." "I think its a blood clog." Outside of his office, Dr. Bakshi stopped and spoke with the area Sgt. and told him in front of me that, "We must get me to an outside hospital." As they walked away speaking, I heard Sgt. Johnson say, "I'll be right back." Approximately three minutes later he came back and told Dr. Bakshi, "that there was no transportation and I'd have to wait until tomorrow." The following day, September 4, 2008 I was taken to Mount Vernon Hospital and diagnosed with Deep Vein Thrombosis (D.V.T.), I could of died!

14. Sgt. Johnson has been added as a Defendant. He was described as John Doe on original complaint.

15. The Plaintiff has no plain adequate or complete remedy at law to redress the wrong described herein.
